

RAWE programme for B.Sc. (Hons.) Agriculture students.

The B.Sc. (Hons) Agriculture students of Dr. Sharad Chandra Pawar College of Agriculture, Baramati, successfully completed the RAWE (Rural Agricultural work experience) programme under the supervision of Dr. Anil Khar (Head & Principal scientist) and Dr. K. Chandrashekar (Principal Scientist) at The IARI Regional Station Pune office from 11/05/2024 to 15/05/2024.

The students gained hands-on experience in the basic farming and research techniques like., Nursery raising; Germplasm maintenance; Selfing and crossing techniques; Identification of various viral disease of crop plants; Identification of insect pests and their damage symptoms in the field; Virus Transmission techniques, DNA extraction from plant samples; Gel electrophoresis and PCR techniques.

Picture: B.Sc. (Hons) Agriculture students of Dr. Sharad Chandra Pawar College of Agriculture, Baramati, undergoing training under RAWE programme at IARI, RS, Pune